

Police Pistol Combat Clinic

April 8th 2017

At the Monroe Chester Outdoor Pistol Range

Are you curious about shooting PPC? Would you like to improve your PPC scores?

The New York Police Combat Association and the Monroe Chester Sportsmen's Club invite you to attend a FREE CLINIC about PPC shooting at 10 AM April 8, 2017 at the club's pistol range.

To reserve a spot at this free clinic please contact Derrick Lopez 845-590-4558 or 140DVL@Optimum.net

You DO NOT have to be an officer to attend, compete and have fun.

Civilian and Law Enforcement (active and retired) are all invited.

We have invited several police instructors to work with you, are welcome in sharpening your skills and give you training, hints and tips from their many years of experience shooting and teaching others to shoot safely and accurately.

Invited instructors include:

Manny Andrews - Multiple PPC state and regional champion NYPD (retired)

Stephen Albanese - Current NYS PPC champion NYPD (retired)

Michael Utzig - Certified Police Instructor - SPNY

Michael Mosner – Current Westchester County Sheriff Certified Police Firearms Instructor – Rockland County Police Academy

Raymond Bravo – Current Westchester County Sheriff Certified Police Firearms Instructor - Westchester County Dept. of Public Safety (which includes county and Rockland County Police Academy)

James Thurston - Clarkstown Police firearms instructor (retired)

Subjects to include: introduction to PPC, demonstration of all combat pistol positions, one on one instruction (for those with valid NYS pistol license.) safety gear and proper equipment is required.

This is NOT a basic shooting fundamentals class. Shooters should be comfortable with drawing firearms safely from a holster and engaging targets safely under timed conditions BEFORE participating. Observers are welcome.

Firearms and ammunition not provided.

Participants must bring their own safety equipment.

Targets will be provided. Light refreshments will be available.
